More Presentations, more friendship!

On Wednesday, Turkish and Greeks had to make their presentation.

- The Turkish started first. They displayed their traditional instruments, folk dances and songs. When they were showing their dances, anyone, who wanted, could join them.
- After that it was the Greeks' turn to present. Greek project's theme was about theatre and tragedy. At the end we had a little game. Everyone could play. Small groups would present an improvised sketch.

Both presentations were unique and interesting, each in its own way.

- After the presentations, we had a break. While we were waiting the food, all the kids from all countries had gone to our school yard to play football. When the food arrived, we ate and the foreign kids went back to their hotel.
- In the evening we met again and we had a nice long walk. We visited Zappeion, and Panathinaikos Stadium.
- We finally went for dinner to a nice greek tavern.

We had a really great time.

Every single moment together was full of fun and joy.

We were already sure that we had become really good friends!
