

Gift exchange!

As all the groups visited our school for the first time, after we finished handing out the essentials, we all went to our school's amphitheater.

Every group introduced itself by offering a gift to our school and the teachers.

We also gave gifts to each and every one of the schools. Each of the gifts were symbolizing the country so we gave them copies from some of the museums we visited together next days.

